

New Immigrants

June 21 – August 8, 2019

EnGage! New Immigrants is designed to give you a cross-cultural ministry opportunity in a new immigrant community in Western Canada – usually in an urban context. Living there you will work to build relationships through teaching English and developing life experiences together that give you opportunities to serve the people and live out Christ’s love among them. You can engage with all ages, but in most cases it will be adults that you will spend most of your time. As relationships develop you will seek to share what you believe and tell them about Jesus.

EnGage! is designed to stretch you in your discovery of God’s faithfulness as you minister among people through your gifts and talents, your training, your faith and life experiences as you’ve walked with Christ. It will give you an opportunity to live out a passion to help others come to know Jesus in a personal way.

Through your involvement in EnGage! you are a catalyst to expand our ministries in ways that would not otherwise be possible. Through English classes, you will meet new people and develop friendships that would not happen. Visiting in their homes and responding naturally to their friendship you build bridges that we can later develop.

From your summer ministry we do all we can to weave your impact in the community into the ongoing long term ministry that InterAct is carrying out in a broader way.

After your arrival in Calgary, Alberta the summer unfolds with four days of training and orientation. Then we place you in an urban community for six weeks. You will start with an involvement in English classes and build relationships from there. Then you’ll wrap up the summer with a three-day debrief before returning home.

Here is an overview of the flow of the summer.
